

BRITISH CROWN GREEN BOWLING ASSOCIATION

Mark Bircumshaw, BCGBA Chief Executive Officer

Mark has decided to step down from his role as BCGBA Chief Executive Officer. Mark has worked tirelessly for the Association in a number of fields over a long period of time. He has been at the forefront of many projects for the Association namely working in partnership with the BDA, Sport England, Coach Bowls, JustGo, Safeguarding and Easyfundraising just to name a few. Mark is currently working with the Association to ensure we have a smooth transitional handover.

British Crown Green Bowling Association would like to thank Mark for his dedication, leadership and direction in the way he has modernised the Association since he was appointed as CEO in 2018. We wish Mark the very best of luck for the future.

Brian Hampson, BCGBA National Administration Officer

At the end of September Brian stood down from his role as BCGBA National Administration Officer. Brian had been in office for a number of years, and previously had been serving the Association in other areas. Brian was impeccable in his administration skills and has left the Association in a good place.

British Crown Green Bowling Association would like to thank Brian for dedication and expertise whilst he was an officer of the Association. We wish Brian the very best of luck for the future.

GREG SMITH LIFTS THE CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS TITLE

GREG SMITH battled the adverse weather on his way to claiming the 2023 BCGBA Champion of Champions title at a rain affected Monks Sports Club in Warrington.

In the first Round Greg had a tough draw against the experienced Paul Dudley, he had a comfortable 21-12 win to set up a mouth watering second round clash with Callum Wraight. On this occasion Greg always had enough on his opponent to ease home 21-11. Further wins in the Quarter-Final against Gareth Coates 21-9 and in the semi-Final versus Andy Hamman 21-11, seen Greg reaching the final for the first time.

In the bottom half of the draw the reigning champion Chris Kelly started his defence of his title against the emerging Robbie Ellis. Robbie upset the odds in a tight game edging home 21-17. Robbie continued his great form with wins against Martin Gilpin 21-19 and Neil Harrel 21-10 to set up a semi-final against BCGBA Senior Merit winner Simon Coupe, once again Robbie was in great form winning 21-16 to reach the final. In the final Greg was in complete control with a comfortable victory 21-9, to end Robbie's marvellous run. The Champion of Champions title putting the icing on the cake on a marvellous season for Greg.

JENNY MOORE SECURES THE 2023 LADIES CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS TITLE

The weather eased at Monks Sports on the Sunday, with the Isle of Man's top Lady bowler Jenny Moore claiming her maiden BCGBA Champion of Champions title at the Warrington venue.

Thirty two Champion Ladies gathered at Monk's sports to battle it out in this prestigious competition. In the first Round Jenny Moore had a tough match against Sharon Tatem just getting home 21-18. As the day unfolded this would be the closest match for Jenny, further victories over Sarah Edmondson 21-10, Emily Kernick 21-13 & Shannon Kernick 21-7, as Jenny eased into the final.

In the bottom half of the draw, the twice Champion Linda Williams of Wales was looking to make it a Hat Trick of Champion of Champions wins. In the first round Linda had a comfortable 21-1 victory, in the second round was drawn against Louise Ollerton and in a close match just got home 21-18. Further wins in the quarter-final 21-2, and the semi-final against the Ladies Merit winner Andrea Buckley 21-15 she was now in the final.

In the final was Jenny was always in control and comfortably denied Linda 21-9 to deny Linda on this occasion the hat trick.

YORKSHIRE DUO CLAIM BCGBA CENTENARY MIXED PAIRS SUCCESS AT OWLEY WOOD

Jasmine Kendal & Craig Gant of Yorkshire come through a high class Mixed Pairs field to claim the 2023 BCGBA Centenary Mixed Pairs title at Owley Wood Recreation Club in Northwich, Cheshire.

The superb Owley Wood venue played host to a top class field in the BCGBA Centenary Mixed Pairs Championship. Thirty one pairs had gathered from around the counties looking for success.

The Yorkshire duo Jasmine Kendal & Craig Gant were one of the fancied pairs in the top half and this was to be proven true when they had a comfortable route to the final.

Their opponents in the final Sophie Rigney & Tom Eccles from Greater Manchester whilst they were also comfortable on the day did have a tough semi-final against the strong Warwick & Worcester pairing of Emily & James Kernick. The Greater Manchester pair just staying strong at the end winning 21-19.

The final was an epic affair and was a credit to the competition. Some outstanding striking from Tom Eccles kept the Manchester duo in the match. After a titanic battle Jasmine and Craig finally sealed the victory 21-19 to thoroughly deserved the win.

PUDSEY BC REGAIN THE BCGBA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

In a change of format from recent years, the BCGBA World Club Championship held its qualifying rounds at four venues around the country. From Bellingham, Dudley Dell, Owley Wood & Spen Victoria each venue provided two qualifiers for the grand final day to take place at Heaton Park in Manchester.

Pudsey BC (Yorkshire) were on a mission to regain the title from Fenton Private, in their Quarter-Final they comfortably dispatched Castle Sports (Cheshire) 154-128. In the Semi-Final they blew away a strong Parkfield Labour (North Lancs & Fylde) side gaining all eight winners 168 to 84.

In the other half of the draw Greville Arms (Warwick & Worcester) were playing their Quarter-Final against Alvaston & Boulton (Derbyshire) powering through to the Semi-Final 167-111. In the Sem-Final they encountered an in form Stretton Anglesey (Derbyshire), in a tight match Greville Arms just edged it 149-146.

In the final Greville Arms got off to a flyer, having good starts in three of the first four jacks. Pudsey BC came powering back, with only Ash Bracken winning in the first four for the Greville Arms. The back four of Pudsey BC proved too strong for Greville Arms securing the World Club Championship 161-131. A great overall season for Pudsey BC adding the World Club Championship to their many list of titles.
